The BA in Christian Education program at Weimar Institute is designed to prepare students to understand and implement Biblical education in roles such as elementary school teacher, missionary, educational administrator or homeschool teacher. This program provides students with qualifications and eligibility for jobs in the North American Division.

- The Christian Education program helps to develop leaders who will teach to the whole person, blending the practical and theoretical to educate learners academically, while also providing guidance for the physical, emotional, and spiritual aspects of life.

- Centralized focus on the life, ministry, and example of Christ the Master Teacher
- Small class sizes allowing individualized and practical instruction
- On-site access to Weimar’s elementary school and academy for student teaching and classroom shadowing
- Education majors gain valuable experience for their future career through Weimar’s work education program and earn money toward their school fees at the same time
- One year overseas mission-field student teaching opportunities are offered to education majors enabling students to gain valuable mission experience

Weimar Institute: Creating leaders of significance who will,
through their work,
their research, their talents and influence, progress the work of God and bless humanity.

"We get the opportunity to put the concepts we study into immediate practice at the Weimar Elementary School on campus. It adds a new, practical dimension to our classes!" Bailey Gallant

"The hands-on aspect of this program has benefited me a lot, but what I appreciate even more is the focus on how to be a spiritual mentor and leader for students, drawing them closer to the Savior's loving embrace." Natalie Rouse

The Weimar Experience

The BA Christian Education program has been established by Weimar Institute to focus on a broad spectrum of Christian Education, based on biblical ideas, and informed by the integration of current educational research and theory with Spirit of Prophecy principles. It is a unique program of learning immersed with Christ in the classroom, practical observation and on-site experience that will equip students with the tools for a life of learning.

- Education professors all have California Teaching Credentials in Education as well as many years of experience in public schools and Seventh-day

Adventist settings

- Seventh-day Adventist education based on biblical principles and Spirit of Prophecy guidelines
- Practical experience in teaching, creating lesson plans, and using proper classroom management
- Academic and social-emotional competencies are offered to all students through a school counseling program
- Students are prepared for further graduate studies
