The BA in Religion is designed to prepare students to be effective pastors and Biblical scholars. There are two tracks available to students. The religion track prepares students to deliver practical ministry within a local setting. The theology track prepares the student for graduate study, with students becoming proficient in Hebrew and Greek.

- The religion degree exists to prepare students for ministry as pastors, teachers, missionaries, chaplains, within the Seventh-day Adventist Church
- Emphasis on helping students obtain a deeper, experiential knowledge of God through the careful study of Scripture and nature, and in the development of the physical, emotional, mental, and spiritual aspects of life

- Students gain knowledge and respect for the fundamental beliefs, worldview, and mission of the Adventist Church
- Each year, credit bearing field trips to Europe (Reformation) and Israel (life and ministry of the early church) with religion professors are available
- More than preach, theology students are given opportunities to shadow the spiritual counselors of the NEWSTART Lifestyle Program and the Nedley Depression and Anxiety Recovery Program
- Successful graduates become effective spiritual leaders, comprehensive health evangelists, discriminating readers, critical thinkers, effective communicators, and biblical scholars to draw on it throughout my ministry."* Bailey Schmidt
